The screws are being vigorously put to the vagrants in Georgia under the new vagrancy law. More than 2,000 arrests have been made in two weeks and the good work continues to move forward. We hope none of those lazy, lounging Georgia negroes, in their endeavor to get out of the reach of the law, will conclude to make North Carolina their abiding place, however.

COTTON CROP YEAR ENDED.

Receipts Heaviest in History of the Port. Secretary Hester's Report for United States—Monthly Statement.

The cotton crop year at Wilmington closed with the opening of business for the new season on the exchange of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday. Compilation by Secretary James Kyle shows that the receipts for the year just ended have been the heaviest by over 43,000 bales in the history of the port. Approximate figures for the present year and a resume for 14 years previous were given in these columns Sunday morning. Yesterday the official report confirmed the accuracy of the approximation and shows the receipts since Sept. 1st 1902 to have been 328,267 bales against 284,732 the year previous. As very little cotton is consumed here, of course the exports were also correspondingly larger.

Last year the domestic exports were 8,282 bales; this year 6,271. Last year the foreign exports were 265,002; this year, 324,601. The total American and foreign last year was 273,284; this year, 330,872. The difference in the receipts and exports is, of course, made up in the amount consumed locally and the stock on hand at the beginning of the crop years.

Secretary Hester's official statement of the cotton crop of the United States for the year ending Aug. 31st was received yesterday by Secretary James Kyle, of the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce. It shows: Receipts, 7,724,104 bales; overland, 1,083,383 bales; Southern consumption net 1,920,072. Total crop, 10,737,559. Total Southern consumption, 2,000,729 including 80,657 bales taken from and counted at Southern outports.

The monthly statement of the receipts of both cotton and naval stores during September and the same month last year may be found in the commercial columns of to-day's STAR.

LOCAL DOTS.

— Spirits turpentine was firm on the local market yesterday at 51½c.

— Four rural free delivery routes were started from Fayetteville yesterday.

— British schooner "Albani" arrived yesterday from New York for cargo of lumber from the Chadbourn Lumber Co.

— Standard Oil Barge 73 is expected to-day or to-morrow with a supply of about 10,000 barrels of oil for the local station of the company.

— An excursion to the Black Fish grounds, leaving the city at 2 o'clock Monday morning, will be one of the features of Labor Day. Only a limited number can be accommodated.

— A congregational meeting of the First Baptist church will be held to-night at 8:15 o'clock for the purpose of receiving a recommendation from the Pulpit Committee, relative to the calling of a pastor. A full attendance is desired.

— By deed filed for record yesterday J. M. Williams and wife transferred to T. S. Evans, of Cronly, N. C., for $2,250, house and lot on west side of Ninth, 180 feet south of Market, and adjoining Meadow street, 33x72 feet, more or less, in size.

— The Orton bar has been leased by Mr. R. W. Wallace to J. T. Quarles, an experienced man, formerly with the Yarborough House at Raleigh. Mr. Quarles took charge yesterday and will make a number of improvements in the place.

— Under foreclosure proceedings in a case entitled Annie E. Miller, administratrix, vs. Andrew Pearsall and wife, Marsden Bellamy, Jr., commissioner, yesterday sold at auction to Col. Walker Taylor, for $675, house and lot on south side of Queen, between Fourth and Fifth streets, 45x99 feet in size.

An Early Morning Intruder.

An unknown white or bright mulatto man entered the residence of Mr. Bernhard Goodman, 106 North Fifth street, yesterday morning about 3 o'clock. Mr. Goodman and his nephew, Mr. Adolph Goodman, were the only occupants of the house at the time. They were sleeping in adjoining rooms upstairs and about the hour mentioned the elder Mr. Goodman was aroused from his sleep by a noise. He jumped up and looked out on the piazza, but saw nothing. Turning again to his room, he saw a man in the closet in the room and asked him what he was doing there. The burglar replied that he was looking for lodging and before Mr. Goodman could summon his nephew or come to a realization of what he was doing, the burglar jumped out of the window opening on the porch and made his way down. A suit of clothes had been taken from the closet and laid on a chair in the room, but nothing else was disturbed.

Purchased Valuable Wharf Property.

By deed filed for record yesterday, Capt. Walter Taft and wife transferred to J. W. Brooks and Edgar Taylor, for $2,500, lot upon which is situated the present store of Messrs. Brooks & Taylor, on the water front, between Market and Dock streets, the property fronting 72 feet on Water street. Messrs. Brooks and Taylor had previously occupied the premises on a long term lease, with an option to buy, which has now been done.

REMAINS A MYSTERY.

Death of Young Joseph Meier is Still a Question With the Coroner's Jury.

INQUEST CONTINUED TO-DAY.

Experts Will Testify as to Condition of Body Immediately After It Was Run Over by Car--Significant Letter to a Justice--Other Notes.

Mystery appears yet to veil the circumstances surrounding the death of young Joe Meier, who was run over and so horribly mangled by the trolley car on Greenville Sound early Sunday morning. There were no developments of a substantial nature yesterday, though Coroner Bell and individual members of the jury investigating the affair, sought diligently for and chance bit of evidence tending to show the real cause of the death. A letter reported to have been received by Justice Bornemann during the day, is said to have given some inside information pertaining to the tragedy but just what is the nature of the contents of the letter will not be known until the coroner's jury assembles again at the City Hall to-day at noon, the hour having been changed last night from 3 o'clock, which was previously announced.

At the session of the jury to-day the two most important witnesses will be Dr. C. J. Manly, U. S. A., of Fort Caswell, and Dr. J. Arthur Dosher, of Southport, who were on the car which ran over young Meier and who will be expected to give expert testimony from their examination of the body a few minutes after the tragedy, with a view of establishing whether the man was placed on the rail after death or whether death resulted from his having been struck by the car. Dr. Dosher arrived in the city yesterday evening and Dr. Manly will come on the 11 o'clock trip of the steamer "Southport" to-day. The hour for reconvening the jury of inquest was changed to suit the convenience of the physicians.

Dr. Dosher was seen at The Orton by a representative of the STAR last night, but he declined to express an opinion professionally before his testimony is submitted to the jury.

"Were you not, as an individual, impressed with the absence of blood upon the scene of the tragedy?" asked the reporter.

Dr. Dosher smiled at the persistence of his interlocutor and only reiterated what he had just said: "I have nothing to say, before giving an opinion to those who summoned me here."

The coroner was informed yesterday by George Judge that he had seen two suspicious-looking negroes following Meier before he left the hobby horses on Castle street, going to the Sound Saturday night. Mr. Judge will probably be one of the witnesses at the continuation of the inquest to-day.

Members of the jury said yesterday that from the evidence secured thus far, they are unable to reach a single definite conclusion. They, however, expressed themselves of the opinion that after hearing Drs. Manly and Dosher they thought they would be able to make up a reasonable verdict as to whether Meier died under the wheels of the car, or whether he was killed previously and placed on the track.

FUNERAL OF MR. GABRIEL HOLMES

Will be Held from St. John's Church This Afternoon—In His Honor.

The funeral of Mr. Gabriel Holmes, whose sad death was noted yesterday, will be conducted at 5 o'clock this afternoon from St. John's Episcopal church and the remains will be laid to rest in Oakdale cemetery. Very many sincere expressions of regret upon the death of so useful a citizen were heard yesterday, and the most loving sympathy was expressed for those so sorely bereaved in his taking away. His loss to the county as a member of its Board of Commissioners was especially remarked upon, and his fellow members of that body were very tender in speaking of their association with him in that public capacity.

On account of the death of Mr. Holmes, the regatta of the Carolina Yacht Club, which was to have been sailed this afternoon, has been postponed until Thursday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. Mr. Holmes was a member of the Club and the race is postponed out of respect to his memory.

Miss Louise Browning.

Chief of Police Furlong yesterday received a request from the chief of Louisville, Ky., asking that the baggage of Miss Louise Browning, the young actress who died under such distressing circumstances at Goldsboro last week, be located in this city and forwarded to relatives in the Kentucky city. Inquiry developed that the baggage had been shipped from The Casino, where she played the week before she died, to Norfolk, Va. The young woman ordered the trunks checked there, as she expected to play at Ocean View the following week.

Boycotting the Trust.

Wilson Times: "No Kinston merchant has bought anything from the American Tobacco Company since the recent boycott, and the ladies are buying snuff from an independent concern in Tennessee."

Leger Meyer, the well known merchant tailor, has removed his tailoring establishment from 27 Market street to No. 403 North Front street, next door to Jurgen Haar. His friends will find him at the new and larger stand after to-day.

BOARD OF AUDIT AND FINANCE

Concurs in Appropriation of $1,600 for Improved Fire Alarm Batteries—Bonds for Maintenance of Contracts

No business of special importance was transacted by the City Board of Audit and Finance at its regular meeting yesterday afternoon. Chairman H. C. McQueen presided and members in attendance were Messrs. C. W. Yates, S. P. McNair and J. A. Orrell.

The most noteworthy action was concurrence in the appropriation by the Aldermen of $1,600, or so much thereof as is needed, for the purchase of the new and improved fire alarm battery system from the Gamewell Co., of New York. The apparatus will reach Wilmington in about 30 days and an expert from the factory will be here to install it. The advantages of the new system have been referred to in these columns from time to time, and Chairman Moore, of the Fire Committee, with his co-laborers in the movement for its purchase, are to be congratulated upon their success.

The remainder of the Board's session yesterday afternoon was taken up with an approval of bills for current expenses and the examination and approval of bonds for maintenance of city contracts, as follows:

J. B. Casteen, for city lighting, in the sum of $200; J. F. Maunder, surety.

Wm. H. Bernard, city advertising, in sum of $200; Jno. D. Bellamy, surety.

Mrs. Jane Sheehan, feeding city prisoners, in sum of $200; Wm. Sheehan, Sr., surety.

Fore & Foster Co., furnishing city with lumber, in sum of $500; Fore & Foster Co. and its officers, H. A. DeCover, president, and D. Russell Foster, secretary and treasurer, sureties.

The Board adjourned, subject to call of the chairman.

YOUNG WHITE MEN TO ROADS.

Mayor Springer Had Several Important Cases in Municipal Court Yesterday.

In default of payment of fines of $10 and $5 respectively, imposed by Mayor Springer in the municipal court yesterday at noon, Jno. Odam and Amos Redd, young white men well known in the city, were sent out to the roads for 30 days each yesterday afternoon. They were charged with having engaged in an affray at Eighth and Castle streets, early Monday afternoon.

Israel Hamon, colored, charged with the larceny of a pair of shoes from another negro at Fifth and Taylor streets, was represented by Herbert McClammy, Esq., and succeeded in establishing his innocence. Henry Pearce, colored, charged with drunkenness, was fined $10 and unless he pays up shortly he will also go to the roads. Lucy Council and Sarah Walters, both colored, each paid $5 and costs for an affray at Fifth and Nixon streets. Alice Miller, white, was fined $5 for provoking an assault by James Smith, who beat her severely, as he alleges, for having harbored a wayward daughter at her house on Eighth and Castle streets. Smith was also fined $5. Aaron Blocker, colored, charged with an assault upon Gracie Blue, a dusky dame of "Dross Neck," was fined $10 and costs and has been given until to-day to "pay up" or "go up" for 30 days.

TO CONSIDER 'PHONE RATES.

Chamber of Commerce Will Meet for That Purpose To-morrow Afternoon.

Upon the direction of President J. A. Taylor, notices were mailed yesterday by Secretary Kyle to all members of the Chamber of Commerce informing them that at the regular meeting of the body on to-morrow afternoon the question of the recent advance in telphone rates by the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Co. will be considered. The matter would have been discussed at the regular meeting of the executive council of the Chamber yesterday afternoon, but the absence of a quorum forbade and no session was held.

It is probable that a representative of the telephone company will be present at the general meeting Thursday and will make an explanation of the new graduated scale of rates which it is proposed to put into effect here. Until that time or until one of the solicitors have an opportunity of elucidating the plan, they ask that the public suspend judgment. However, it is believed that the Chamber of Commerce will enter strenuous objection to the advance.

Held for Wife Beating.

John R. Miller, colored, for wife-beating, was committed to jail by Justice Bornemann yesterday in default of $300 justified bond for his appearance at the next term of Superior Court. Miller was arrested by Justice Bornemann, with the assistance of a policeman, Monday about midnight and was at once committed to jail. While proceeding with him in custody to the jail the negro acted very ugly, and told the Justice that one of them would have to die before he would go behind the bars. Justice Bornemann was very decisive in his reply, and the negro accompanied him to durance vile.

Al. Field's Brother.

Mr. J. E. Hartfield, a brother of Al. G. Field, the world renowned minstrel director, and advance agent for his company, was here yesterday arranging for the coming of the celebrated burnt-cork aggregation to the Academy of Music, Tuesday night, Sept. 8th.

IN RECEIVER'S HANDS

A. J. Marshall, Esq., Appointed to Wind Up the Affairs of Sneed Furniture Co.

ORDER ISSUED ON MONDAY.

Papers Served and Receiver Took Charge Yesterday--Liabilities Exceed $5,000; Assets About $3,000—Hearing Before Judge O. H. Allen.

Upon petition of Mrs. Ida E. Sneed, who sues in behalf of herself and all other creditors who may come in and be made parties plaintiff, Judge Oliver H. Allen, in chambers at Kenansville, N. C., Monday night issued an order appointing A. J. Marshall, Esq., receiver for the Sneed Furniture Company, of this city, and directing him to take charge of the business of that corporation and wind up same, distributing the proceeds of same ratably among its creditors. Hon. Jno. D. Bellamy is counsel for the plaintiff and returned to the city yesterday morning with all the necessary papers in the case.

It is alleged in the complaint that the defendant company is indebted to the plaintiff in the sum of $758.43, evidenced by note of date July 6th, 1903, payable 30 days after date for value received, and also in the further sum of $1,750 evidenced by another promissory note. It is further alleged that the corporation is utterly insolvent and unable to discharge its debts in full; that the corporation is indebted to plaintiff and various other creditors exceeding $5,000, as plaintiff is informed and believes, and has assets in stock and accounts and all bills receivable in nominal value of about $3,000 and of actual value not exceeding $2,000; that the defendant is daily incurring heavy expenses and is gradually eating up its assets, so that if the business is longer continued the plaintiff and other creditors will not receive 20 per cent. of their claims; that the defendant corporation has already been sued by Royall & Borden, creditors, who have already obtained judgment for an amount a little less than $100 and suit is also threatened by sundry other creditors, whose claims are within the jurisdiction of a Justice of the Peace and are now in the hands of attorneys for collection, all of which defendant is unable to pay and unless the court takes possession of the property it will be levied upon and sold and the assets of the defendant company will be frittered away and plaintiff and other creditors will not receive but little, if anything whatever, on their debt. The complaint prays for the appointment of a receiver; for a restraining order prohibiting the defendant from interfering with or distributing the assets until further orders of the court and for such other relief as may be deemed meet and proper.

Judge Allen, in chamber at Kenansville, granted the order and cited the defendant to appear before the Judge holding court at Burgaw Sept. 7th, to show cause why the order and temporary receiver should not be made permanent.

Mr. Marshall yesterday gave bond as receiver in the sum of $2,000 and took charge of the stock of the company in its store on southeast corner of Second and Market streets.

ORRELL & ALEXANDER, NEW FIRM.

Popular County Commissioner Purchases Interest in Growing City Business.

The firm of Messrs. Orrell & Carroll, liverymen at southwest corner of Third and Princess streets, was yesterday dissolved by mutual consent, Mr. L. V. Carroll retiring from the business and Capt. Robert C. Orrell forming a copartnership with Mr. W. F. Alexander under the firm name of Orrell & Alexander, who will enlarge and carry on the business as before. Official notice to that effect is given in another column of to-day's paper.

Mr. Alexander, who is one of New Hanover's best citizens and a member of the Board of County Commissioners, will remove with his family to the city on Oct. 1st and will occupy the handsome residence recently purchased by him on Princess, between Eighth and Ninth streets. He has rented his fine farm on Middle Sound, seven miles from the city, to Mr. F. A. Montgomery, who will remove there also on Oct. 1st. Mr. Alexander is a man of fine qualifications, has a peculiar aptitude for the business in which he has engaged and with Capt. Orrell will make a splendid success. He is already widely acquainted and very popular and will be welcomed with his excellent family to Wilmington.

Monthly Police Record.

During the past month the police made 113 arrests, 73 of the defendants having been colored and 40 white. The number is unusually large for mid-Summer. During the month over $300 was collected in fines and costs from the Mayor's court, which is another excellent showing for the chief executive of the city and the police department.

Held for Abandonment.

Robert Martin, a colored drayman and a man of some means, was bound over to the Superior Court by Justice Fowler yesterday to answer a charge of having abandoned his wife and children. He gave bond in the sum of $50 and was released from jail. Herbert McClammy, Esq., prosecuted the case and Geo. L. Peschau, Esq., appeared for the defendant.

COLUMBUS TELEPHONE CO.

Sale of Its Property, Franchises, Etc., by Receiver Weeks Yesterday—B. G Empie, Esq., Successful Bidder.

C. D. Weeks, Esq., receiver, yesterday sold at auction at the court house door in Wilmington, all the property, franchises and other assets of the Columbus Telephone Co., of Whiteville, the sale having been by virtue of a recent order of Judge Oliver H. Allen upon petition of W. B. Cooper and other creditors of the corporation, who were represented by Messrs. Russell & Gore. The property was bid in by Brooke G. Empie, Esq., whom it is understood was acting for certain of the creditors.

It is learned that in all probability the sale will be confirmed by the court. J. B. Schulken, Esq., of Whiteville, was present at the sale and protested against the same just before the bidding commenced. He notified those present that the property had previously been sold by him as trustee and that there would be a question as to the title of the property.

Mr. S. F. Craig, a large stockholder and director in the company, who was a party to the action praying for a receiver, and Mr. Empie were the only bidders. Mr. Empie started the bidding at $1,500, but it soon went up to $2,500 and was knocked down at that figure.

The company owns about 170 miles of line and reaches Wilmington, Cronly, Clarkton, Whiteville, Cerro Gordo, Southport and other points.

A Chinese Complication.

Der Wo, proprietor of a Chinese laundry on Third, between Market and Princess streets, was arraigned in Justice Bornemann's court yesterday charged with failure to deliver a package of laundry entrusted to his care by Mr. W. A. Apple, a tobacco buyer at the Wilmington warehouse, who was unable to place his hands on the hieroglyphic ticket just at the time he needed his laundry. Judgment was rendered in favor of Mr. Apple, but the defendant, through his counsel, Herbert McClammy, Esq., appealed to the Superior Court.

POPULAR FIREMAN DEAD.

J. E. Jeffries Passed Away Last Night After Brief Illness.

Mr. J. E. Jeffries, 31 years of age and a popular member of Engine Co. No. 1, of the Wilmington Fire Department, with headquarters at Fourth and Princess streets, died last night at 11:50 o'clock at the home of his mother, Mrs. E. Everett, No. 508 South Third street, after an illness of eight days with typhoid fever. The news of the young man's death will come as a sad blow to hundreds of friends in Wilmington where he was well known and highly esteemed. He possessed many noble traits of character; was always bright and cheerful and was a faithful and skilled fireman.

He was a grandson of the late Col. James Green Burr and leaves to mourn their loss, a devoted mother, two half-brothers and three half-sisters—Messrs. Edward Everett, of New York, J. B. Everett, of Wilmington, Mrs. J. M. Kermon, Miss Nellie W. Everett and Mrs. C. A. Thompson, all of this city. They have the tenderest sympathy of many friends in their bereavement. The funeral announcement will be made later.

TO-NIGHT AT CAROLINA BEACH.

Mid-Week Dance and Seashore Hotel Orchestra—Two Moonlight Trips.

To-night the usual mid-week dance at Carolina Beach will take place, and it promises to be a most charming and delightful affair. The music will be by Hollowbush's splendid Seashore Hotel orchestra, which will also play on both trips to and from Wilmington. The steamer leaves the city at 8 o'clock, and the fare will be only 25c for the round trip. Returning, the last train, connecting with the boat at the pier, will leave the beach at 11 o'clock. This will give ample time for all to reach their homes in the city at midnight. The mid-week dances at Carolina Beach this season have proven especially popular and have been attended and participated in by many of the leading young people of the city.

To-morrow night special trips of the steamer "Wilmington" will be made on the river and the orchestra will accompany the excursionists. For those trips, the steamer will leave at 8 o'clock, returning at the pleasure of those on board.

FUNERAL NOTICE.

The funeral of Mr. GABRIEL HOLMES will take place this afternoon at 5 o'clock from St. John's Church; thence to Oakdale cemetery. Friends and acquaintances are invited to attend.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, EASTERN District of North Carolina, ss: In the United States District Court, in and for said district Fourth division. In the matter of A. S. Manltsby and W. S. Manltsby, partners trading as A. S. Manltsby & Brother, bankrupts. No. 97. In Bankruptcy. Petition for discharge. To the Honorable Thomas R. Purnell, Judge of the District Court of the United States for the Eastern District of North Carolina: A. S. Manltsby & Brother, of Fayetteville, in the county of Cumberland and State of North Carolina, in said district, respectfully represents that on the 9th day of July last past they were duly adjudged bankrupt under the acts of Congress relating to bankruptcy; that they have duly surrendered all their property and rights of property, and have fully compiled with all the requirements of said acts and of the orders of the court touching ithir bankruptcy. Wherefore they pray that they may be decreed by the court to have a full discharge from all debts provable against their estate under said bankrupt acts, except such debts as are exempted by law from such discharge.

Dated this 26th day of August, A. D. 1903.

WILLIAM H. BERNARD.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, SEPT. 2.

BRAXTON'S SPEECH.

Says the Lynchburg News: Hon. A. C. Braxton delivered an able address at the meeting of the Bar Association at Hot Springs on the subject of the fifteenth amendment of the Federal constitution. We have not had the pleasure of reading this address in full, if indeed it has been published, but the brief outline that has appeared in the newspapers shows the trend of the speaker's argument. Mr. Braxton contends that the fifteenth amendment was never fairly and honestly made a part of the Federal constitution. It was passed by a congress elected without reference to that question and in violation of a promise not to force negro suffrage on the Northern States. It was ratified by State Legislatures controlled by radicals, and chosen before this question came up for consideration. The methods by which this amendment, or rather these amendments, the fourteenth and fifteenth, were tacked on to the constitution were more than questionable.

It is doubtful whether the people of the United States, if they had had an opportunity to express themselves would have endorsed them at the time they were promulgated in 1870. It is certain that they could not now be adopted by the constitutional method if it were an open question. But whether they can be repealed is another story. Yet it would be much better to repeal them than to permit them to remain nominally in force, but really a dead letter. It is possible that if the question could be brought before the Supreme Court that august body might declare that the amendments were not properly ratified, but this is uncertain, and it would be much better to repeal them in a manner that would admit of no doubt. It strikes us, however, that a demand for repeal to be effective should come from the North. There never was any doubt about the sentiment of the South on the subject. There never was a time when a fairly representative Southern Legislature would have ratified the amendments, and there can be no doubt that every Southern Legislature would gladly vote for the repeal. It is possible that enough Northern Legislatures would unite with them to accomplish the desired object. And signs are not wanting that Northern public opinion is tending in that direction.

A Northern writer in the Chicago Chronicle, a journal which is by no means friendly to the South, looks forward with much apprehension to the time in the near future when the negro problem will come home to the people in the North.

The following extract from his letter to the Chronicle is significant:

I repeat that not more than one white man in 100 will now maintain that the fifteenth amendment was anything save a frightful blunder. Why should not the political parties of this country have patriotism enough to join forces in this one matter—repeal the amendment, restore the negro to his position as a ward of the nation, instead of a citizen, and thus avert a contingency which cannot be contemplated without horror?

I am in earnest in this matter because I believe that the North rather than the South stands in greatest jeopardy from the black peril. The people of the South, by the experience of generations, have learned to keep the negro in control. The people of the North, as shown in recent ghastly episodes, known no other way of dealing with them than to kill them.

It is in the North, then, that the real menace is strongest. It is from the people of the North that the demand should come for the repeal of the constitutional amendment. The politician who has the courage to initiate the movement will soon find that he has the people behind him.

AN ANNUITY OF $500 000 WANTED.

The Colombians who assisted in defeating the Panama canal treaty pretended that they opposed its ratification because it granted greater jurisdiction of Colombian territory than the Colombian constitution permitted, but there isn't much doubt that the real reason of their opposition was that they hoped to get either an increase in the cash payment or in the annuity for which the treaty provides. It is stated that the State Department has received advices from Bogota to the effect that steps will be taken at once to ratify the treaty provided. President Roosevelt will agree to increase the annuity to $500,000. The treaty provides for an annuity of $250,000.

The Colombians do not seem to understand the situation in this country. In the first place the President has no authority to change the terms of the treaty. He can't promise that the annuity shall be increased to $500,000. He can agree to recommend that it be increased to that amount, but it is doubtful if he would do so, and it is pretty certain that Congress wouldn't sanction the recommendation if he should make it.

It was with the greatest difficulty that the friends of the Panama route were able to get the treaty ratified. If it were to come before the Senate again with a demand for an annual payment of $500,000 instead of $250,000 the chances are that it wouldn't be ratified.

The friends of the Nicaragua route have a great deal of influence in Congress, and they would use it to have that route adopted. It can be stated quite positively that the Senate will not agree to increase the annuity. That being the case, much the wiser plan for the Colombians to pursue is to accept the treaty just as it is.

If they do not, the probability is that there will be no canal constructed on the Panama route, and Colombia will lose not only the canal, but also the annuity of $250,000 and the cash payment of $10,000,000. If the Colombians are trying to bluff the United States into paying more for canal privileges than the treaty provides they will discover that the United States cannot be bluffed in this matter.—Savannah News.

CURRENT COMMENT

—— David B. Hill will remember that the ability to endure snubs constitutes an essential portion of a New York political leader's education. If he has any doubt on the subject he can study the career of Mr. Platt. — Washington Evening Star, Rep.

—— "All the President wants," we are told, "is legislation at an early date that will render the currency system of the country more elastic and less likely to be affected by the fluctuations of values or the demands for money at crop-moving seasons." Just so. But has any one ever heard the President, who has never been charged with reticence of speech, specify the legislation that is to do the work?—Louisville Courier-Journal, Dem.

—— It is more amusing than instructive to learn that "no protest is heard in Michigan against Roosevelt's policy. One year ago there was considerable feeling among the beet sugar manufacturers and raisers against the President on account of his demand for reciprocity with Cuba and a lower tariff on Cuban sugar. This feeling has been greatly allayed." We should think so. Considering the promptness with which the President turned the Cuban treaty over to the beet sugar men, they ought not to have any hard feelings against him. Mr. Roosevelt is making no enemies if he can help it. It is only necessary to show him that his convictions will encounter opposition and he will drop them and procure a different set at once. There never was a candidate more anxious to please.—Philadelphia Record (Dem.)

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

— It is said the Seaboard Air Line will build a line from Apex through Dunn to Clinton.

— Hugh C. Casper, of Winston, committed suicide Saturday afternoon by taking 12½ grains of morphine.

— Ben Cherry, a well known colored man, of Greenville, who was helping moving an old building at that place Saturday, became overheated and died in a few minutes.

— Mary Latta, sentenced to the Penitentiary for 30 years for the murder of her husband, was taken to Raleigh Monday. With the woman was her six-months-old infant.

— Durham Sun: The same old story comes from Laurinburg. The eight-year-old daughter of a prominent farmer of that county was burned to death Friday afternoon, while starting a fire with kerosene. The can exploded by pouring oil on the fire.

— Charles Chick, a painter, while intoxicated, fell down a flight of steps Saturday at Winston, his head going through two thick window panes. The carotid artery on the left side of his neck was severed and he came near bleeding to death before a physician arrived.

— Kinston special to Raleigh News and Observer: Mr. Albert Barwick fell from a hand car yesterday morning while on his way home near Grainger's, from Kinston, and falling under the car was run over and sustained injuries which are serious if they do not prove fatal.

— A trolley line is built from Salisbury to Spencer. The distance is three miles. The extension of the line to the Yadkin river, two miles east of Spencer, is also assured. The location on the river is considered one of the best in North Carolina for park and resort purposes.

— Winston Republican: Mr. Thos. Brown, ferryman at Shoals, this State, caught one of the largest turtles we have ever seen. He saw his tracks where he had come out of a pond of water known as the black pond, and tracking him a little piece found him where he had buried himself in the mud and carried him to the depot where he pulled the scales at 28 lbs.

— Albemarle Enterprise: Mr. C. M. Palmer, of New London, has invented a wood distilling apparatus that will convert a cord of fat pine into one hundred gallons of product in the shape of turpentine, creosote and tar, together with about 25 bushels of charcoal, worth from $20 to $30. It is the latest and most improved machine on the market for this work, and it is expected that Mr. Palmer will realize largely from his invention.

— Asheville Citizen: The Buncomb county gallows may be used to hang Wilfred Roseboro, the negro who murdered a lady near Statesville, and after being captured near Saluda, was lodged in the jail here. Sheriff W. A. Summers, of Iredell, has recently sent Sheriff Reed an invitation to attend the hanging on September 10 at Statesville, and Sheriff Reed, learning that there was no gallows at Statesville, offered his and if its measurements fit the Statesville jail it will be accepted.

— A Greensboro special says: Yesterday Mr. John R. Baxter, superintendent of one of J. Van Lindley's nurseries, hitched up a young colt to his buggy to break him. The colt ran away, threw Mr. Baxter out, breaking his collar bone and left leg, and completely demolishing the buggy. Mr. Baxter was admonished by his sons that it was dangerous to hitch that spirited colt to a buggy, but he said he knew how to break a colt. He admits now that the animal knew something about breaking, too.

— Marion special to Raleigh News and Observer: Marion Watkins was found badly mangled on the railroad near Glenwood Sunday morning. He was here Saturday drinking and was seen to board a train for Blacksburg about 6 o'clock P. M. That was the last seen of him until as stated above. —— A child was found last Friday near Mica postoffice, in Mitchell county, with its skull fractured, apparently but a few hours old. It had been buried in a field near where some hands were at work. A dog came to them with one arm in its mouth. This caused a search to be made. Suspicion was directed to a young woman living near by and a warrant was issued for her arrest, but she had fled.

Blowing the Feather.

This simple game makes no end of fun. The players seat themselves on the floor in the form of a hollow square and take hold of a sheet by the edges, raising it until it is just under their chins and keeping it taut in that position. It will thus be spread out on a level about eighteen inches above the floor.

One of the players is left out of the square, and after the sheet is spread he places on it a small feather, which the players in the square immediately begin to blow about in every direction. The outside player's task is to catch the feather either in front of or on some one in the square, and when he succeeds that player takes his place.

As the feather is blown here and there and the outside player rushes here and there after it the fun becomes uproarious, and then he finds his chance, for some one gets too weak from laughing to blow the feather at the right time, and he seizes it.

Would Be a Sight.

"Mamma," said a pretty four-year-old miss who had been watching her mother arranging her toilet preparatory to making a call, "when I det big like 'ou, will I pin more hair on my head an' put white 'tuff on my cheekses?"

"Yes, dear, I suppose so," replied the mother.

"Dwacious," exclaimed the little beauty, "won't I be a sight!"

What Is Life?

In the last analysis nobody knows, but we do know that it is under strict law. Abuse that law even slightly, pain results. Irregular living means derangement of the organs, resulting in Constipation, Headache or Liver trouble. Dr. King's New Life Pills quickly re-adjusts this. It's gentle, yet thorough. Only 25c, at R. Here is one case of it:

R. A. Biddle, clerk at 19 Market street, residing at 606 Castle street, says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills myself for kidney trouble and my wife who also suffered from backache also used them. I never knew anything to act so quickly. I have suffered quite a long time with my back and kidneys. The kidney secretions were very dark and full of sediment. My wife also complained of her back, and when we read of Doan's Kidney Pills in our newspapers I went to R. R. Bellamy's drug store and got a box. We used them with the best of results. In my case the kidney secretions cleared up and the pains left my back. We have neither of us complained since taking Doan's Kidney Pills, and it is with pleasure that I recommend them at every opportunity."

Interesting Facts About Bees.

John Burroughs says that when a bee brings pollen into the hive he advances to the cell in which it is to be deposited and kicks it off, as one might his overalls or rubber boots, making one foot help another. The honeybee ranks among the highest of all insects, because of its thoughtful provision for the future and the care shown its young. The young bees which receive this care from the working bees are called larvæ. These are of three kinds, found in three different kinds of cells, and they are called queens, drones and workers. The best time to study this wonderful insect is when buckwheat and goldenrod are in bloom. If possible, visit some hive and try to see them at work inside. It is very interesting to see a few captured bees that have been fed with some honey "take a bee line" for home when let loose. This is the plan followed in the mountains and elsewhere when hunting for wild honey. Frequently these bees will return for more honey to the same place where they were fed at first, as their instinct is akin to reason, and they always observe a place so as to return to it. When making room in the hive for a set of young bees, the old queen bee leaves the hive, followed by nearly all of the grown bees that are there at the time, and, after swarming in the air, they go directly to a new home, just as if they had selected the place beforehand. They not only make wax and honey, but add to their usefulness by carrying the pollen for the fertilization of flowers.

A Traveled Doll.

Miss Mary Green is a rubber doll who appeared one day late last fall in the postoffice at Winchester, Mass., and whose travels are told about by the Grand Rapids Herald. On her dress was fastened a slip of paper which read: "The climate of New England is too severe for this child. Please pass her to the Pacific coast for the winter." Some friendly clerk put a stamp on her dress and sent her to Montana. From there she went to California, then to British Columbia and from there to Ottawa. Each postoffice clerk seems to have enjoyed her society as long as she pleased, then pasted a stamp to her gown and sent her on.

At Denver she evidently attended a banquet of the mailing clerks and had some new traveling garments given her. Her dress is said to be covered over with postage stamps from various offices in the United States, and around her neck are several "poems" written in her honor. She also wears newspaper badges from many different states, showing the honor with which she was received at the various literary banquets which she had attended. From Ottawa she brought back a tag which proved to be a pass to the gallery of the house of commons.

In the Wilds of Massachusetts.

It might be thought that the day had gone by when to the English mind America appeared as a land of waste places and wildernesses unredeemed. But a story which a recent visitor to England brings home shows that there are still honest Britons who do not understand our ways of life.

At a dinner table the American happened to remark that there was a curfew in Cambridge, Mass., and some other towns.

"A curfew?" asked an English lady.

"Yes; a bell that rings at half past 9 to call the children off the street."

"Oh, I see," said the English lady affably. "I suppose after dark there is danger from wolves."

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—The cotton market opened weak at a decline of six and four points under heavy realizing and liquidation as a result of the low cables and better crop news. There was no lack of bull support, however, and for a time the market hung around the opening, then as out-of-town selling orders came in declined to a level net nineteen and twenty-three points lower on the active months. At this point offerings became slightly less insistent and good buying of October and September for the bull leaders brought about a partial reaction, September gaining about eleven and the later months from four to six points. At these figures the weekly weather bureau report was read and while mentioning about the extent of deterioration expected proved to have been pretty well discounted. Its immediate effect was an advance of four or five points, but this was also immediately lost and during the balance of the session prices showed an almost uninterrupted downward tendency, being finally at within a point or two of the lowest for the session. The close was barely steady, between 22 and 29 points lower; sales were estimated at 500,000 bales. The opening declines both here and at Liverpool were attributed very largely to the special crop condition report of the Journal of Commerce, showing the condition to be the best for this period for several years past and to have gained 2.9 per cent. during the last month. This report was accepted as a guide to the probable showing of the government and was in line with popular opinion as to the crop outlook. The weather reported was also of a bearish average, although temperatures continue low in some sections. The movement remaining very small, the spot situation continues strong and spot sales were reported to-day in the New York market of some 2,366 bales, including 1,000 for export, 1,266 to spinners and 100 delivered on contract. Spot prices were unchanged on the basis of 12.75 for middling uplands.

TUSKEGEE, Ala., July 28, 1898.—DR. C. J. MOFFETT—My Dear Sir: Justice to you demands that I should give you my experience with your excellent medicine, TEETHINA. Our little girl, just thirteen months old, has had much trouble teething. Every remedy was exhausted in the shape of prescriptions from family physicians. Her bowels continued to pass off pure blood and burning fever continued for days at a time. Her life was almost despaired of. Her mother determined to try TEETHINA, and in a day or two there was a great change—new life had returned—the bowels were regular, and thanks to TEETHINA, the little babe is now doing well.

Yours, etc., D. W. McIVER, Editor and Proprietor Tuskegee (Ala.) News.

THRASHING A KING

[Copyright, 1903, by C. B. Lewis.]

We were trading to the Loyalty islands in the brig Louise of San Francisco and on this particular trip had anchored in a bay in the king's own island and opposite his village. The king was called Tom John, and he professed the greatest friendship for traders. We had been there for ten days and nothing whatever had occurred to make us suspect treachery. The captain and I had been ashore several times, been treated with the greatest deference, and the natives who had boarded us did not need watching.

We soon received a royal visit.

The king was accompanied by three of his escort, and we afterward remembered that they appeared to be more interested in the windlass, cable and the spare anchor on the rail than in all else about the craft. A pressing invitation was given us to attend a royal feast on shore that evening, a sort of "blowout" to prove the friendship of the islanders, but as the captain was not feeling well he declined to accept. Tom John and his friends appeared to be very much disappointed and upset that we were not to go, but when they left the brig it was with the understanding that the feast should come off a day or two later.

The night came down very dark, with the promise of a change of weather. Every night we had had two armed men on watch, while the cannon was loaded with canister and the muskets were ready at hand in case of an alarm. There were thirty canoes drawn up on the beach, and the adult male population of the town counted up at least 350. For arms they had a few old muskets, but depended mostly on blowguns, lances and bows and arrows. Aside from these every man had a knife. We had an anchor watch set, with orders to be extra vigilant, and this man had not been on duty an hour when he felt, as he afterward explained it, that something was wrong with the anchor or cable. He aroused the man who had left the deck, but was ridiculed for his fears and ordered to return to his station. Ten minutes later, having heard suspicious noises over the bows, he ventured to wake me up and relate his fears. I went on deck with him, and after listening for a few minutes became satisfied that something queer was going on and called the captain, who at once ordered the sleepers to be turned out.

The black rascals were trying a trick worthy of a Yankee. The tide would begin to flow at 2 o'clock. Four of their largest canoes had paddled quietly out to the anchor, divers had gone down with the rope, and they were lifting it off the ground to let the brig be drifted ashore with the tide. We couldn't see ten feet into the night, but we came to this conclusion from the feel of things, and we didn't reach that conclusion a minute too soon. I went down into the cable tier and softly knocked out the shackle pin, while the captain saw that the end of the cable went overboard without noise, being lowered by a rope. At the same time men were sent aloft to loosen the sails, and we got steerage way on the brig just in time to save her. Some of the fellows must have been nearer than we imagined, for as we headed across the basin they raised an alarm, a score of torches were lighted simultaneously and three canoes full of men came dashing at our port bow. The captain and a sailor slewed the gun around and poured its contents into the approaching crafts, and the discharge was followed by such shrieks and yells as I never want to hear again. We dared not risk the attempt to leave the harbor with the darkness so thick around us and the breeze shifting about so unsteadily, and for the next two hours we were boxing about the basin and expecting an attack any moment.

When daylight came the wind settled into the north and was fair for a run out. The captain wanted to teach the heathen a lesson first, however. There was a fleet of a dozen canoes coming out for us, and the fellows were no doubt pleased and surprised that we had not escaped to sea. Every man was told what to do, and we put the brig directly for the fleet. When within musket shot, the captain opened with canister, and later on we used our muskets to good advantage. In passing through the fleet the brig ran down a canoe with nine men in it, and I believe we killed a dozen outright. None waited for a second dose, but made for the shore as fast as possible. In one of the canoes was the king himself, and one of our crew brought a musket to bear on him and put a bullet into his shoulder.

We had won a victory, but the captain was not yet satisfied. We had about thirty solid shot in the magazine, and standing back and forth across the basins, as near the town as we dared approach, they were sent whizzing from the big gun to knock things into fragments. Every inhabitant fled to the woods as we opened fire, and, though we were not using hot shot, three or four fires were kindled and the biggest part of the town was laid in ashes.

There was no fear of the natives attacking us if we landed, as the roar of the big gun and the havoc wrought by the cannon balls had given them a fright they would not get over in a whole day. We put off in boats, landed on the beach, and what buildings had been spared we applied the torch to, and before the brig sailed away everything was in flames. The plot to massacre us originated with the king, who declared that it could not fail. The fact that it did fail so incensed the people against Tom John that he lost his head before the brig was out of sight, as we afterward came to know. M. QUAD.

Exercise In the Open.

It is so much easier to do the thing we like to do, that if in order to get the outdoor exercise we need we have to enter into some sport, then enter into the sport. Exercise in the open, unvitiated air is full of health for every one who will partake.

Frozen Beef Tea.

Beef tea frozen to a snowlike consistence, can sometimes be taken by fever patients to whom the hot tea is disagreeable beyond endurance.

The Cistern.

A small bag of charcoal hung in impure water will purify it, and it is well to keep such a bag in the cistern. Water filtered through charcoal may also be rendered perfectly pure.

European Peasants.

European peasants are suspicious of "the people in the next valley." Age long feuds like that between Siena and Florence are common.

Rescued from Death.

229 Massachusetts Avenue,
INDIANAPOLIS, IND., April 4, 1903.

A year ago I suffered with flooding spells which threatened to end my life. I was given up by several doctors when my notice was called to your Wine of Cardui. I felt that it was only a waste of time and money to try it but to please my aunt I did so. It was really wonderful how soon I was benefited and felt myself growing better and stronger. I found the medicine pleasant to take and each month the flow was less until in seven months I was perfectly natural and suffered no pains.

You cannot wonder that I am enthusiastic in the praise of your medicine when you know all that it has done for me.

Anabelle Allen
SECRETARY, COSMOPOLITAN CLUB.

WINE of CARDUI

Mrs. Allen made a conservative statement when she wrote that flooding spells threatened to end her life. Every woman should know that flooding if not checked is sure death. It is nothing more nor less than the escaping of the life blood from the body—bleeding to death. Consumption is not so terrible as this awful calamity when it has gotten beyond control.

When the doctors had given up Mrs. Allen and when she had no hope, Wine of Cardui checked the terrible waste and saved her life. Besides saving her life Wine of Cardui brought her back to perfect health.

Could there be a more complete and conclusive demonstration than this of what Wine of Cardui can do? If Wine of Cardui cured those terrible chronic spells for Mrs. Allen, would it not do the same for you? Menstrual irregularities, bearing down pains, ovarian troubles, suppression, nervousness and headaches and backaches are only less dangerous symptoms of female weakness and Wine of Cardui cures them all—destroys the last trace and brings perfect health.

You need not have the greatest faith in Wine of Cardui. Mrs. Allen didn't. Just give it a trial and let Wine of Cardui cure you just as it did Mrs. Allen. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles Wine of Cardui.

A Cutting Retort.

Beerbohm Tree, the London actor, has rather a pompous manner, which is calculated to ruffle the temper of other people at times. An actor from the provinces called upon him recently, hoping to get an opportunity to show his worth on the metropolitan stage. "Oh, I could not possibly give you a part," said the great manager, "but I dare say I could arrange to let you walk on with the crowd in the last act." The young aspirant flushed with indignation, but, holding himself well in hand, replied pleasantly, "My dear Mr. Tree, I really don't think I have heard anything quite so funny from you since your Hamlet."

Fearful Odds Against Him.

Bed-ridden, alone and destitute. Such, in brief, was the condition of an old soldier by the name of J. J. Havens, of Versailles, O. For years he was troubled with Kidney disease, and neither doctors nor medicines gave him relief. At length he tried Electric Bitters. It put him on his feet in short order, and now he testifies: "I'm on the road to complete recovery." The best on earth for Liver and Kidney troubles and all forms of Stomach and Bowel complaints. Only 50c. Guaranteed by R. R. BELLAMY, druggist.

Dr. Walter A. Taylor, Atlanta, Ga.

Dear Sir: This is the first certificate that I have ever given as to the merits of any medicine, but I take pleasure in recommending Dr. Biggers' Huckleberry Cordial. I consider it the best remedy that I have ever used in my family for Stomach and Bowel Troubles. 50c invested in a bottle of this medicine to be used in the beginning of any stomach trouble will often save life as well as a large doctor's bill. I have a friend whose life was, in my opinion, saved by the prompt use of Dr. Biggers' Huckleberry Cordial. For sale by all Druggists, 25 and 50c per bottle.

The Morning Star.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, SEPT. 2

ANOTHER FAILURE TO RACE.

Not Enough Wind—Nothing But Haze and Mist and a Smooth Sea—Another Attempt to be Made To-day.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—The third attempt to sail the third and probably final race of the series for the America's Cup was a failure to-day. There was not enough wind even to make it worth while to send the yachts across the line. A small fleet of excursion steamers, poorly patronized, and a few steam yachts convoyed the racers to Sandy Hook lightship and then hopelessly waited for a fair sailing breeze. A heavy pall of haze and mist hung over a sea with a surface like glass. An absolute calm was varied at intervals by faint drafts of wind from the southeast and southwest. Reliance and Shamrock III never dropped their tow lines, but with mainsails and club topsails set, circled in ghostly fashion about and through the fleet.

At 10:40 the committee's tug Navigator signalled that the start would be postponed until later in the day. An excursion steamer pursued Shamrock III, her band playing "The Wearing of the Green," to relieve the monopoly of the long wait. C. Oliver Iselin impatiently paced the deck of Reliance and Designer Fife was the center of a little group of sailing advisors on Shamrock III.

There was no sign of either wind or lifting of the foggy haze when at 12:30 the Navigator asked the assent of the racing skippers to a postponement and securing it, signalled that the race was off and that another attempt to sail it would be made to-morrow. The discouraged fleet quickly started for home.

CROP CONDITIONS.

Cotton Shows Deterioration—Rust and Shedding Very General.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGON, Sept. 1.—The Weather Bureau's weekly summary of crop conditions says:

"While there has been some improvement in the condition of cotton, mainly in portions of the central districts, the crop as a whole has suffered deterioration, rust and shedding being very general throughout the belt, and premature opening in some of the eastern districts where excessive heat proved unfavorable. In Texas there has been much shedding, and while boll worms are disappearing and the crop is more promising in the northern counties, the boll weevil continues very destructive in the southwest, central and eastern portions. Picking is now general throughout the southern districts of the cotton belt.

"The tobacco crop has suffered some injury from rains in Wisconsin and New York, but elsewhere has experienced no unfavorable conditions and cutting has progressed satisfactorily."

OLIVER REFINING CO.

Proposition to Pay Liabilities from Brothers of President of Company.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NORFOLK, VA., Sept. 1.—At a meeting of the creditors of the Oliver Refining Company, which recently failed for over a quarter of a million dollars, held here to-day, a proposition was submitted by the company to pay its liabilities, dollar for dollar, if the receivers appointed by Judge Waddill were withdrawn and the company allowed to resume its own operations. The proposition is that Thomas Oliver, of Lockport, N. Y., and William Oliver, of Lincoln, Neb., brothers of John Oliver, president of the company, agree to furnish $100,000 cash at once and assume all the other liabilities, giving notes at one, two and three years secured by deeds of trust upon the plant here and their own personal and real estate, life insurance excepted. The Olivers also agree to defray all costs of the court proceedings as well as to furnish the compensation to be received by Receivers Edward L. Flash, of New York, and P. L. Stephenson, of Norfolk. The creditors adjourned to meet Friday in New York, when the matter will be settled.

TEXAS COTTON CROP

THE MACEDONIAN REVOLUTIONARIES.

Proclamation Issued Proclaiming a General Insurrection in Northern Macedonia.

NEWS OF SEVERE FIGHTING.

New Outbreak Headed by Famous Leaders Threaten to Massacre All Turkish Inhabitants if Barbarous Acts of Turks Are Not Stopped.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

SOFIA, BULGARIA, September 1.—The Macedonian revolutionaries awaited the anniversary of the Sultan's accession to proclaim the long anticipated general insurrection in Northern Macedonia, the proclamation of which was issued to-day, signed by all the members of the insurgent general staff.

The new outbreak is headed by the famous Macedonian leaders, General Zontocheff, president of the Macedonian committee, and Colonel Jankoff, who was wounded in the rising of 1902.

The new territory covers the district in the valley of the Strums, at the base of the Rhodope mountain and to the north of the river Vadord. Colonel Jankoff is directing the movements of the bands in the southern part.

News of severe fighting is still coming in. At the village of Armensi, after a day's fighting, the Turkish troops in the night time massacred the entire population of 180 men and 300 women. The Turks have also massacred the inhabitants of the village of Velsi. It is reported that Hilmi Pacha, the inspector general for Macedonia, fears to leave his headquarters in the Konak at Monastir.

The insurgent leader Grueff, in a letter to Hilmi Pacha, demanded that he prevent the barbarous acts of the Turkish soldiers and bashi-bazouks, otherwise the revolutionaries would massacre all the Turkish inhabitants.

The insurgents have occupied the mountain pass of Gergele on the main line from Salonica to Uskub and Turkish troops have been sent to dislodge them.

The town of Malkoternovo is reported to be in a state of anarchy, the Turks plundering the houses and committing unspeakable atrocities on the women.

The Magelssen Incident.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 1.—The Porte has notified Minister Leishman that five arrests have been made at Beirut in connection with the shooting which led to the report that William C. Magelssen, the United States vice and deputy consul had been assassinated.

The Turkish officials continue to insist that no attempt was made on the vice consul life and they reassert that the whole story originated in a feu-de-joie fired on the occasion of a native marriage and in accordance with custom.

Mr. Leishman, however, refuses to accept such an explanation without conclusive proof that the judicial investigation continues.

The attempt to burn the American college at Kharput occurred five weeks ago, and apparently was the work of an individual who considered he had a grievance against the college authorities. When Mr. Leishman was informed of the attempt he demanded that the Porte protect the American institution, and in consequence of his representations instructions were sent to the authorities at Kharput to try in the regular courts the charges against fifty Armenians accused of trafficking in arms and engaging in other seditious acts. Among the accused is Professor Tenekedjian, of the American college, whose treatment in prison pending his trial was also ordered to be improved.

Mr. Leishman is pressing for a definite settlement of a number of matters on which agreements were reached with the Turkish authorities last year, but which, in spite of frequent promises on the part of the Porte, have never been executed. For instance, a naturalized American is still in prison at Tripoli, Syria, although the Porte has frequently informed Mr. Leishman that the authorities at Beirut, who have jurisdiction over Tripoli, had been ordered to liberate him.

The American officials here attribute the dispatch of the warships to Turkish waters not solely to the Magelssen affair but to the general dissatisfaction of the authorities at Washington at the non-fulfillment of the Porte's promises in regard to pending questions and to the determination of President Roosevelt to show Turkey that she cannot trifle with American representation. Diplomatic circles here generally approve of the energetic action of the United States, which, it is pointed out, is amply justified by the bad faith of Turkey and it is felt here that the appearance of the United States warships in Turkish waters will lead to the immediate settlement of the pending disputes. Nothing so impresses the Porte as a naval demonstration.

U. S. Warships.

MESSINA, SICILY, Sept. 1.—The United States cruisers Brooklyn and San Francisco passed through the straits of Messina at 11:20 A. M. today, bound south. The semaphore saluted the warships, wishing them good luck.

Bulgarians Killed.

SALONICA, Sept. 1.—According to the latest Turkish official estimate, 1,500 Bulgarians were killed in the recent fighting at Smilero, Nevesks and Klissura. The Turkish losses are not stated. This estimate does not include further losses in the Smilero district, where fighting was renewed August 30th and continued until yesterday. It is reported that 650 Bulgarians were killed in this two days' batile.

SOFIA, Sept. 1.—A strong force of Turkish infantry, cavalry and artillery recently attacked the village of Stoilove, northward of Malkoternovo, which had been occupied by insurgents. The latter retired, after which the Turks entered the place, massacred the entire population and destroyed the village.

Prince Ferdinand of Bulgaria has arrived at Euxinograde, Bulgaria, where he has been joined by Premier Petroff. The prince is expected to remain there for some time.

Provision for War.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 1.—The government has imposed a personal, or land tax on the entire population of the empire over the age of 18. The tax is on different classes and ranges from about eighty cents to $800 each annually. This is regarded in some quarters as being in the nature of a provision for war.

Andrew Finch and Dock Bacon, negroes, sentenced to hang for attempting to criminally assault Mrs. C. E. Geoghegan, will be hanged at Boydton, Va., to-day. Finch has made a statement exonerating Bacon from all knowledge of the crime. Bacon was convicted upon Finch's testimony. Governor Montague has refused to interfere with the sentence of the court.

TURKISH VERSION OF THE MAGELSSEN AFFAIR.

Pistol Was Fired by a Man Returning from a Marriage Fete and Was Fired in Air Just as Vice Consul Was Passing.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—Chekib Bey, the Turkish minister, has received from the minister of Foreign Affairs at Constantinople, a dispatch giving the Turkish version of the reported attempt on the life of United States Vice Consul Magelssen at Beirut. After declaring that the report of the assassination of Mr. Magelssen was absolutely false, the dispatch gives a version of the affair practically the same as has been told before in the dispatches from Turkey. It says the pistol was fired by a man returning from a marriage fete; that the shot was fired in the air and that it happened just as Mr. Magelssen was passing in his carriage. This, the dispatch says, led the vice consul to believe that an attempt had been made against his life. The man who did the shooting has been delivered to the judicial authorities.

Chekib Bey's dispatch also asserts that order and tranquility prevail at Beirut.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—The first official dispatch coming directly from Beirut regarding the Magelssen affair has been received by Secretary Hay. It is dated August 31st and is signed by Consul Ravndal. It says:

"The attempt on Magelssen's life failed utterly. A narrow escape, but the vice consul suffered no injury."

NEGRO MAN ASSASSINATED.

Principal of Pointe Coupee Industrial College, La.—Had Been Making Incendiary Speeches.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

MEMPHIS, TENN., September 1.—A special from New Roads, La., gives further particulars regarding the assassination of I. A. Planving, a negro educator, near Oscar, La., Sunday night by unknown persons.

Planving was principal of the Pointe Coupee Industrial College, an institution for the education of negroes. While on his way home Sunday night, on the main road, near False river, he was fired upon from a cotton field. The first shot struck the horse which the negro was riding, and the second struck Planving in the back of the head, penetrating his brain and causing instant death. It is claimed that Planving recently has been making incendiary speeches to the negroes of the community, advising them not to work for or have anything to do with white people and it is alleged that his utterances had much to do with the assassination.

Booker T. Washington was to have visited this vicinity next month as the guest of Planving to deliver a series of lectures.

POSTOFFICE DEPARTMENT.

Postal Matters before the Grand Jury. More Indictments Expected.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—A number of the inspectors who have been investigating the affairs of the office of the assistant attorney general for the Postoffice Department were in consultation to-day with Assistant United States District Attorney Taggart regarding postal matters before the grand jury. Although it is possible that the jury may reach an agreement to return one or more indictments any day, it is not now anticipated that the decision of the jury will be reported before Friday. Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow is devoting a great deal of time to the preparation of his report.

Mr. Bristow confers every day with the postmaster general regarding matters connected with the inquiry. To-day he refused to venture an opinion as to when the investigation can be closed or when his report can be placed in the hands of the postmaster general.

STOCK MEN COMBINE.

Independent Company Formed to Compete With Trust.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

KANSAS CITY, MO., September 1.—Twenty-five stock men from different parts of the Western grass country met in this city to-day and arranged to perfect the organization of a packing company to compete with the alleged packers' trust.

The new company was named the Independent Packing Company. Articles of incorporation will be drawn and signed to morrow. The company will have a capital stock of five million dollars and will be incorporated under the laws of Arizona. Of the total capitalization, fifty-one per cent. will be so disposed of as to be held in escrow by the board of directors of the company. This will insure stockmen who interest themselves in the plan that the company will always be controlled by stock interests.

The Independent Packing Company will build one plant in the Missouri valley. Another plant will be built later, probably in Texas.

RAILWAY ACCIDENT.

Engineer Killed and Fireman Fatally Scalded—Near Winston-Salem.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Sept. 1.—Engineer H. W. Lucas was killed and Fireman J. W. Stafford was fatally scalded this afternoon by an accident on the Norfolk and Western near Winston-Salem. The accident was caused by several cars breaking from a freight train and running back down the grade into the train handled by the injured men. None of the passengers was injured.

Excursion to Fayetteville.

Thos. H. Knight will run one of his extremely popular excursions to the historic city of Fayetteville over the fast and famous Atlantic Coast Line on Monday, September 7th. This will be a big day in Fayetteville and you cannot find a more agreeable spot on which to spend it. Take advantage of this chance to spend the day so pleasantly on the last and best excursion of the season. Knight's excursions are known for their splendid conduct and are patronized by the best people. Separate cars for white and colored people. Train leaves Atlantic Coast Line depot 8:00 and will leave Fayetteville on the return at 11:00 P. M. Fare for the round trip only $1.00. †

Fire at Nashville, Tenn., which started in Timothy Brothers' dry goods store on College street last night, made rapid headway. By 12 o'clock the fire was under control, the loss being estimated at $175,000. Timothy Brothers are the heaviest losers.

RACE TROUBLE IN AN ILLINOIS TOWN.

A Mob of Fifty Masked Men Attacked the Jail at Shawneetown.

TRYING TO LYNCH A NEGRO.

Charged With Criminal Assault—Mob Unable to Break Down the Jail Doors Dispersed at Daylight—Fear of a Race Riot.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

SHAWNEETOWN, ILL., Sept. 1.—A mob of fifty masked men went to the jail here this morning and demanded that Jailor Galloway turn over to them John Griffin, colored, who was under arrest for an attempted assault on Mrs. Joseph Hobbs, a white woman, near her own home. Griffin had been frightened away by the woman's screams and had been arrested a short while afterward.

When the mob demanded that Jailor Galloway turn the negro over to them Galloway armed himself and after reasoning with the men from the jail door, he warned them that an effort to force the jail would be at their own peril. The mob, in spite of the jailor's words, made several ineffectual attempts to break down the jail door, finally dispersing about daylight.

Many of the colored people are taking sides with Griffin, though some of them have, in fear of a race riot, left the town.

No trouble has followed the visit of the mob to the jail this morning, but preparations are making to take the negro to Carmel for safe-keeping.

SUFFRAGE LEAGUE OF BOSTON

Negro Organization Repudiates Booker T. Washington as a Political Leader.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

BOSTON, MASS., Sept. 1.—The Suffrage League of Boston, a negro organization, to-night adopted resolutions declaring:

"Inasmuch, as Booker T. Washington has glorified the revised constitutions of the South, has minimized the Jim Crow car outrage, has attacked the wisdom of the 14th and 15th amendments to the constitution; has deprecated the primary importance of the ballot; has preached to the colored people silent submission to intolerable conditions, and makes his people a by-word and laughing stock before the world, he is not a fit leader for the colored race, and no President who recognizes him as a political leader should receive the colored vote of the North.

"Therefore, since President Roosevelt has given him charge of the appointment of all negroes of whatever State in the Union, and has made him the negro advisor as to all policies affecting colored Americans in the interests of our race, we call upon President Roosevelt to dispense with Mr. Washington as our political spokesman."

THE VENEZUELAN CLAIMS.

First Session of the Court of Arbitration at The Hague.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

THE HAGUE, Sept. 1.—Prof. Lammarch, of Austria, has been appointed one of the arbitrators of the claims of the allied powers for preferential treatment in the settlement with Venezuela.

The first session to-day of the court which is to decide the Venezuelan claims was occupied by the discussion of the procedure to be followed. The members of the council of administration, the premier, Dr. Kuyper, and the foreign minister Baron Van Lynden, were present. The press was excluded from the court. The Venezuelan counsel has handed a protest to the secretary of the tribunal against the delay entailed by the failure on the part of Great Britain and Germany to ask the Czar to appoint three arbitrators in time for the opening of the tribunal. It is believed that the Venezuelan counsel will insist on the nomination of arbitrators and the organization of the tribunal as soon as possible.

RAILROAD OFFICIALS.

Meeting to Revise Lumber Freight Rates for the South and West.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—Officials of several Southern railroads met here to-day to revise the schedule of lumber freight rates for the South and West and for a general discussion of railway matters in the South. Those who attended the meeting were General Traffic manager E. B. Cost, Seaboard Air Line; Vice President W. A. Winburn, Central of Georgia; Vice President W. D. Hines, Louisville and Nashville, and Vice President J. M. Culp, Southern.

THREE LIVES LOST.

Workmen Suffocated by Gas in a Sewer at Milwaukee, Wis.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

MILWAUKEE, WIS., Sept. 1.—Three men were suffocated by sewer gas in the North avenue sewer near the Chicago and Northwestern tracks today. The dead: R. J. H. Hickey, sewer contractor; Superintendent Schunke, of the city water department; colored man, name unknown.

Contractor Hickey and his men were at work in the sewer in North avenue under the newly depressed track and were overcome by gas and died before they could be rescued. Several others had narrow escapes.

MEETS TO-DAY IN ATLANTA.

Bible Conference to Promote the Education of Negro Preachers.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

ATLANTA, GA., Sept. 1.—A three day's Bible conference, under the auspices of the committee of the John C. Martin educational fund, will begin here to-morrow. This fund, established by John C. Martin, of New York city, and endorsed by some of the leading educators of the North and South, is used to promote education of negro preachers throughout the South by cooperation of leaders of both races. The conference will be welcomed by Mayor Howell and will be addressed by many prominent divines and educators from different parts of the country.

CHARGED WITH SEDUCTION.

Young Man from Delgado Will Have to Answer for the Grave Offence.

Ernest Porter, a young man employed at Delgado, was arraigned in Justice Fowler's court yesterday and recommitted to jail in default of $300 justified bond for his appearance in the Superior Court to answer a charge of seduction under promise of marriage. The case is being prosecuted by Mr. Joseph Mason, also of Delgado, whose daughter, Miss Estella Mason, Porter induced to leave home and go with him to Mount Olive, N. C. She remained away several days and the father went there for his daughter. The case is said to be a most aggravated one and it developed upon a proper examination of the defendant yesterday that perhaps he has a wife in some section of the country.

PROPOSITION TO LEASE A. & N. C.

Mills Interest Said to be Behind the Movement—Meeting To-day.

[Special Star Telegram.]

RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 1.—The council of State and directors on the part of the State for the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad, from Goldsboro to Morehead City, will meet in the Governor's executive office to-morrow to consider a proposition to lease the road. The proposition is from interests represented by J. A. and W. W. Mills, principal owners of the Raleigh & Cape Fear railroad. It is understood that the offer will be 2 per cent. interest on stock, one condition being that the lessees shall build 50 miles additional road west of Kinston. The term proposed is 60 years. Advocates of the lease say it will put the stock on a 4 per cent. basis. The impression prevails that the lease will be made.

THE COTTON CROP.

Secretary Hester Reports the Total for the Past Year 10,727,559 bales.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 1.—The totals of Secretary Hester's annual report of the cotton crop of the United States were promulgated to-day. They show receipts of cotton at all United States ports for the year, 7,724,104 bales, against 7,679,290 last year; overland to Northern mills and Canada, 1,083,388 against 1,103,953; Southern consumption, taken direct from the interior of the cotton belt, 1,920,072 against 1,897,437, making the cotton crop of the United States for 1902-03 amount to 10,727,559 bales against 10,680,680 last year and 10,383,422 the year before. Colonel Hester has made his usual investigation into the consumption of the South and has received reports by mail and telegraph from every mill consuming cotton in the cotton growing States, including woollen mills that have used cotton, and the results show a total of 2,000,739 bales, but of this 80,657 were taken for the ports and included in port receipts.

PEONAGE IN ALABAMA

Discussed at Length by Gov. Jelks in His Annual Message.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

MONTGOMERY, ALA., Sept. 1.—In his message to the Legislature which met to-day, Governor Jelks dwelt at length on peonage in Alabama, condemning those guilty of the crime, and deploring the wide publicity given them by the press. He declared the conditions here have been greatly exaggerated. In Georgia, he said, similar cases have been tried, the guilty convicted and no great hue and cry has been raised about them. While Georgia has not escaped the crime, it had escaped the notoriety which had been given Alabama.

ALABAMA LEGISLATURE.

Bill Introduced to Withdraw State Aid from Booker Washington's School.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

MONTGOMERY, ALA., Sept. 1.—Representative Wood introduced in the Alabama Legislature to day a bill which seeks to take from the Tuskegee normal school, of which Booker T. Washington is the head, the annual appropriation of $1,500 which it receives from the State agricultural fund. The same bill seeks also to deprive the negro normal college at Montgomery of $1,000 from the same source. Mr. Wood is a resident of the town where the Tuskegee school is located. The bill was referred to the committee on education.

Locomotives For Coast Line.

Norfolk Virginian Pilot: "In order to meet the demands of its constantly increasing traffic the Atlantic Coast Line railway has placed an order with the Baldwin Locomotive Works for seven new engines to be among the largest and strongest locomotives in the Southern States. The additional rolling stock will be ready by the time the Fall rush of freight movement begins."

WARM WIRELETS.

The cruiser Cleveland, built at Portland, Me., and designed for service in tropical waters, made her official trial run yesterday.

Lou Dillon, at Cleveland, Ohio, broke her former record to wagon yesterday afternoon, going a mile in 2:04½. Her former record was 2:04¾.
